Insurance

We provide advice and intervene in the different jurisdictional orders in which disputes related to civil and criminal liabilities arising from the multiple behaviours that generate compensation for damages are substantiated; all this representing the interests of both the insurance companies and those insured by them, advising on the most suitable legal strategy in each case.

We advise public and private organisations outside the sector, but in need of help in this area, providing them with concrete and effective solutions to the issues they present us with. All of this, derived from our extensive experience in the sector and a specialised team of professionals, allows us to provide the best service to our clients.

Acts of conciliation and preliminary diligences or proceedings of voluntary jurisdiction

- Alternative dispute resolution. Complete processing of the preliminary proceedings prior to the filing of a declaratory procedure, aware of the importance of these procedures in the present and future after the entry into force of Organic Law 1/2025, of 2 January, on measures regarding the efficiency of the Public Justice Service.

Eviction process

- We handle the entire eviction process, from the filing of the lawsuit to the recovery of possession of the property. This includes the action for claiming rent and the complete execution of the judgement, ensuring that the client's rights are protected at all times.

Order for payment

- In cases of overdue and uncollected debts, we manage the payment order procedure, presenting the claim before the court and seeking a quick and efficient resolution for the recovery of the debt.

Enforcement of judgments

- We arrange all the necessary actions to be taken for the enforcement of favourable rulings, proactively monitoring compliance with them.

Appeals at second instance

- We manage the filing of appeals before higher courts after review of the notified decision, carrying out a feasibility report on the risks and chances of success of filing the writ of review.

Recoveries

- It includes amicable claim actions up to the maximum period established by the company, guaranteeing maximum proactivity and agility to ensure the success of the recovery, with special focus and monitoring being placed on telephone call management. Thus, from the first call, the debtor's situation is gauged to assess the decision-making process of whether to continue with the amicable claim or directly take legal action.

Once the deadline established for this first phase has expired, the opportunities and the decision to initiate a legal claim are analysed. This decision will be accompanied by a brief report on taking the case to court, identifying the extrajudicial steps taken, the reasons for taking the case to court and the legal feasibility.

Once the amicable claim phase has been completed, and after the viability report has been issued, if it is deemed viable the claim will be filed.
